Who are Our Great Men?

But a short period has elapsed since our youth were taught that labor was honorable that to be called from the field or the workshop to fill a place of public responsibility was an honor. This teaching has been conveyed in various ways throughout the Northern States, all tending to the one proposition—"labor is honorable." Instances innumerable have been recorded in histories and school readers, where men have succeeded from humble and obscure boyhood in attaining prominent positions in the world, for the sole purpose of inciting the youth of the land to emulate their example. Now, however, in the estimation of some people these things have changed, and he who works for a living is a poor miserable wretch—a worthy object of derision and scorn. It is proposed to have an aristocracy based upon the ability to live without work, with the privilege of looking down contemptuously upon all those compelled to earn their bread by the sweat of their brows. If free labor, intelligently directed, has made our people what they are, it is an indication that the majority of our population are laboring men. We wish to call attention of our laboring men, especially such as have been led away by Copperhead misrepresentations to the estimation in which they are held by their corrupt and wicked leaders. We wish to show them that they are giving countenance and support to those who in return would deny them the right of advancement in the social scale, who would close the door to their preferment, and make the odor of their honest toil to stink in the nostrils of an aristocracy of self-constituted rulers. The fact of a man having been obliged to carve his own fortune is, according to the leaders of the modern Democratic party, the brand of infamy, and they would hold him up to the detestation of all their kind. Will the industrial classes—the bone, sinew and brains of America—sustain the weight of such a set of carping vagabonds in their ascent to power over the humble necks of toil? Read what the New York World—the acknowledged leading organ of modern Democracy—says of laborers:

"The age of statesmen is gone, the age of rail-splitters and tailors, of buffoons, boors and fanatics, has succeeded. Mr Lincoln and Mr Johnson are men of mediocre talents, neglected education, narrow views, deficient information, and coarse, vulgar manners."

The only merit we can discover in this Baltimore ticket is the merit of consistency. It is all of a piece: the tail does not shame the head, nor the head shame the tail. A rail-splitting buffoon and a boor, both from the backwoods, both growing up in the ignorance, they would afford a grotesque subject for a satiric poet, who might celebrate them in such strains as Dean Swift bestowed on Whiston and Ditton, or Aristophanes on that servile demagogue, Hyperbolus. We degrade our highest offices with free republics of antiquity scorned to degrade with their political punishments.

If more of copperheads can rule the nation, can the working man hope for advancement. No longer need he study to qualify himself for any position above that incident to his birth. The copperheads will never more permit us to "degrade our highest offices" by an elevation of those who have the energy to work their way upward. Every avenue of encouragement to labor will be lost, and the child of honest parents, obliged to earn his daily bread, must live and die a serf. Out upon such arrant snobbishness!

Now who is this Manton Marble, editor of the World, who thus contemns humble origin and honest toil? The Albany Express states that this rail [illegible] was once a poor boy in Albany, who probably would not have emerged from obscurity but for the benevolence of a gentleman who befriended him, having the expectation that he would enter the ministry. And now the pitiful snob talks sneeringly of "rail splitter" and "boorish tailor."

OREGON RAILROAD SURVEY.—The arrangements for the completion of this important work are still in progress. The main route from the boundary line of the State, has, we understand, already been finished, and little now remains but to delineate upon the map the field notes taken by the accomplished surveyor. The proposed railroad route through the Willamette Valley, direct to Portland, has never received the attention and encouragement its importance demands, but the time has arrived for something to be done, and we earnestly hope our citizens will not be found wanting in public spirit to complete the survey. Col Barry is in the city, and will receive the names of all those willing to help the matter along. We are glad to see that H W Corbett, Esq heads the list with $100, followed by Ladd & Tilton, also for $100. We hope soon to be able to publish a long list of just such subscribers, and as many as possible of signers for less sums, according to their means and public spirit.

The subscriptions are received for the purpose of defraying in part the cost of making a preliminary survey for a railroad route, connecting the Pacific Railroad at some point in California or Nevada Territory, with the city of Portland, Oregon, by the way of the Willamette Valley. They are not, as some suppose, gratuitous contributions, but only advances made for the necessary preliminary work, the amounts to be paid when the field notes have been put in possession of Mr Ladd, to be followed, as soon as possible to complete it, by a map of the route. While the present indications are that the greater part of the stock for the completion of the road will be taken by residents of the Valley, our citizens certainly should not hesitate to subscribe what may be necessary to complete the survey. We append the general form of the paper in circulation:

We, the undersigned subscribers, agree to pay the amount hereunto subscribed by us for the above purpose to Col. CHAS. BARRY, General Agent and Superintendent of said Survey, on demand made by him. On the final organization of the Railroad Company, it shall be optional with the undersigned subscribers to become stockholders in said Company to the amount subscribed by each, at the rate of —— per share, with the privilege of one vote to each share, or not. If they choose to become stockholders as above, they each shall be credited on the books of the Company for the full amount subscribed by each, without interest. It is further agreed that the subscribers to this list shall not be required to pay, or be made liable for any amount beyond that by them subscribed.

"OREGON STATE EDUCATIONAL ASSOCIATION AND TEACHERS' INSTITUTE."—The third annual session of this Institute was held at Albany, commencing Aug 2d, and continued in session four days. Twenty one new members were admitted, and the following officers were elected for the ensuing year:

President, Prof I P Henderson. Vice Presidents, S H Marsh, Prof J L Powell, and Rev S G Irvine. Corresponding Secretary, C B Roland. Recording Secretary, A C Daniels. Treasurer, P Stilson. Executive Committee, A C Daniel, P S Knight and I P Henderson.

The following resolution was presented by President S H Marsh which, after an able discussion was adopted:

Resolved, That in teaching practical Arithmetic, a thorough knowledge of the rules should be the foundation of all illustrations and instruction.

The following resolution was also presented, discussed and adopted:

Resolved, That in the government of the school the authority of the teacher should be employed with love; that it should be exercised for right objects, and it should be maintained when treated with disrespect with firmness.

On motion of Prof. Wilson, the following resolution was adopted:

Resolved, That as teachers impress the minds of their pupils by example, as well as precept, therefore, they should use neither tobacco, intoxicating drinks nor profane language.

The following resolution was offered by President Marsh:

Resolved, That it is the duty of all teachers to inculcate as far as possible, sentiments of loyalty to the Government upon the minds of their pupils.

After some discussion, the resolution was adopted.

On motion, a committee of three, consisting of Professors Marsh, Powell and Henderson, was appointed to prepare an address to the teachers of Oregon.

On motion, a committee of five was appointed to take into consideration the practicability of publishing an educational Monthly in Oregon, with instructions to report at the next annual session of the Association. Messrs. Powell, Gilbert, Knight, Trimbles and Marsh were appointed the said committee.

On motion of President Marsh, a committee of nine was appointed to draft a School Law to be presented to the State Legislature at its next session.

Resolution adopted.

This committee was subsequently increased to nine, and authorized to act in full for the Association. Messrs Henderson, Marsh, Powell, Finlayson, Stratton, Cartwright and George were appointed said committee. This committee was instructed to meet at Salem on Thursday before the meeting of the Legislature.

The following report and resolutions presented by the committee on the state of the country were unanimously adopted:

Although our country is now and has been for three years passing through a most severe ordeal, we believe the signs of the times warrant us in cherishing the hope, that the crisis is well nigh passed, and "there is light beyond." Therefore,

Resolved, That we as Teachers, pledge ourselves to a full and earnest support of the Constitution and the Union, under the protection of which our system of common schools has been organized and sustained, and that animated by the spirit of Liberty and Love to our race, we will wage an uncompromising warfare against Ignorance and its twin sister Secession, until the last vestige of both shall be swept from the State.

The following was presented by A C Daniels and unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That we tender our thanks to the citizens of Albany for their generous and cordial hospitality, extended to the members of the Oregon State Teachers' Association during its session in this city, and for the interest they have taken in our deliberations.

The following was presented and adopted:

Resolved, That those who have lectured or read essays before the Institute at its present session, be requested to furnish copies or abstracts for publication.

Admirable addresses and essays varied and added much to the general interest of the session, which adjourned to meet in Salem on the last Wednesday in July, 1865. We regret very much that Portland was not represented at this important gathering.

"WEALTHY AND WELL BRED."—We observe that several of our California contemporaries, in speaking of Federal officers recreant to their trust, assert that the delinquents have associated with and receive the countenance of the wealthy and well-bred in the community, who are sympathizers with the rebellion. We take exceptions to the remark, and deny that the "well bred" of any community can be in opposition to the Government of their country. If having been brought up without labor, and supported by the toil of slaves is the pre-eminent mark of "good breeding," we have nothing to say. But we have been taught that a well-bred man was one who had been educated in the principles of self government and independence in all matters connected with the economy of an active existence. Self-reliance, whether touching the labor whereby personal existence or government is supported, is the true and only breeding to deserve the approbation of a country. Honors. This toadying to a false aristocracy, in which too many of our youth have been and are still being educated, is one of the crimes and curses of the land, and to this single and too popular error we may ascribe much of the evil now visited upon our people. The really "well bred" man is able and willing to risk the battles of life upon his own responsibilities and by his own toil, and asks no odds or assistance of an institution at variance with the laws of God. No well bred American can be hostile to free institutions and free government. There may be and are wealthy traitors whom a too large portion of society recognizes as aristocracy on account of their wealth, but if with their money they possess influence to use against their neighbors and their government, their breeding at least is contemptible.

REBEL CRUELTY.—It is customary with "Conservative Democrats," says the Virginia Herald to deny the reports of the rebels starving Union prisoners to death. The following extract from a letter received by a gentleman in this city from his brother, will throw some light on the subject. The letter, which is dated Martinsburg, W. V. June 28th, after mentioning certain family affairs contains the following account:

Wesley (another brother) is in the hospital at Washington. He was taken sick just before the battle in the Wilderness and was sent to the rear, and while he and 1200 other sick and wounded were on their way to Fredericksburg they were taken prisoners and remained in the hands of the rebels fifteen days, during which time many were starved to death. The rebels only allowing one cracker per day to each man, the poor fellows died off like rotten sheep for want of food.

TURPENTINE.—A large lot of turpentine was recently shipped from China to San Francisco and since reshipped. The fact is, says the Bulletin that California and Oregon are now fully supplying the market with a good merchantable article of Spirits Turpentine, and which is of approved quality. That from Oregon is made from the fir tree and the California production is from the pine. Consumers are now using the domestic article for all house painting purposes, and for which $1 per gallon is freely offered.

The President has signed a bill adding ten cents per day to the pay of soldiers, who will henceforth receive fifty three and a half cents per day more than is paid to the soldiers of any other nation.

The residence of Solomon Smith in Silverton was consumed by fire on the 5th of August. Nothing was saved but one bed. We did not learn how the fire originated.—Statesman.

A Trip to the Dalles

PORTLAND, July 22, 1864.

EDITOR OREGONIAN:

I take the liberty to sketch you a few lines prompted by a recent trip made to the Dalles, which at this time may not be inappropriate. It may be well for all pleasure as well as health seekers to know what advantages may accrue from such a trip.

The route from here to the Dalles is one of the most magnificent I have ever seen—it is truly grand. How many tourists have traveled thousands of miles and spent thousands of dollars to witness landscapes which poorly compare with the scenery of this mighty tributary of the Pacific main. When the grandeur of her extensive path is fully known to those in distant climes, we believe men will spend thousands of dollars to secure a view of her lofty and precipitous banks and the beautiful cataracts which here and there flow from her pierced sides and her rushing roaring boiling cascades, whose turbulent waves like living monsters are dashing wildly on to secure a lodgement in the mighty reservoir of the universe.

Nor is the magnificence of the scene the only inducement the trip affords. This giant stream, I am happy to be able to say, is navigated and enterprising men with abundant means by noblest steamers. The energy which the Oregon Steam Navigation Company have put forth eclipses everything else of its kind on the Pacific Coast, all things considered. Nor is the enterprise of the Company alone confined to the steamboating; they have also brought into their service, in order to surmount the impassible Cascades—the iron horse with lungs of fire—thereby making the connection between the boats easy and comfortable. And here I feel I would be omitting an important item if I were to neglect to mention in terms of just praise the noble and worthy President of the Company—the mighty wheel horse of the great enterprise—who deservedly merits the epithet of the Railroad King of Oregon. Who, when they consider the labors of this company, will say there is no enterprise in Oregon? The boats of the O S N Co., especially those above the Cascades, are specimens of art not surpassed in these United States. One may ride in them for days with all the ease and comfort that is usually found in the homes of wealth. It is a wonder for which we can find no solution that there are yet to be found hundreds of individuals in this city and State who have never as yet taken advantage of the delightful accommodations and visited one of the noblest specimens of the Creator's handiwork. Had I the means as I have the will, I would instantly invite each and all to visit this wonderfully wild and romantic portion of Heaven's domain, and there and then teach them from the book of Nature, with an irresistible power which no other book can teach, that God reigneth.

It is impossible for any one with an reflecting mind to make this trip without being even a better and a nobler man. Let the man of contracted views make this tour and it is almost certain his mind will be expanded and his views enlarged. He will ever after have nobler conceptions of men and things. Let the proud follow in the same track and behold the wonderful effects of the mighty stream coursing as she has done in all probability for thousands of years the self same path, upon the solid and massive masonry which in ages long gone has formed her almost impenetrable bed; I say it is almost impossible for such to view the wonderful effects of time without feeling that they are but the creatures of a day. In fine, we would repeat what we have already said, that you cannot make the trip without being a wiser, a nobler, a better man.

T A HYLAND.

Letter from the Dalles.

DALLES, Aug 8, 1864.

EDITOR OREGONIAN:

On my arrival at the Dalles this afternoon and passing through the streets, I noticed hand bills posted in many places to the effect that Rev Thos H. Pearne, of your city would address the citizens of the Dalles, on the great issues of the day. Feeling deeply interested in these matters I concluded to go and hear it. The meeting was held in the Methodist Church and the large house was crowded. The speaker commenced by singing the Battle Hymn of the Republic, after which he addressed the audience for one hour and a half in a most convincing, powerful and eloquent manner. He favored the election of President Lincoln and Andrew Johnson and the people gave strong evidence that they were of the same opinion. He next planted himself upon the resolutions passed by the Baltimore Convention, and most eloquently did he sustain the truths of the proposition therein contained.

He wanted no compromise with treason and armed traitors, and this sentiment met with a hearty response from the assembly.

He then gave us some of his observations in the States.

1st. He was pleased to notice the prosperity of all the loyal States.

2d. The people of these States were determined to crush the rebellion and bring traitors to justice.

3d. The people and soldiers have full confidence in Gen. Grant and that he will take Richmond.

The entire speech was very able and eloquent throughout and was listened to with marked interest. It was a masterly effort, and Mr Pearne more than sustained the high reputation he has gained as a most eloquent defender of our country's cause. May he live long to battle freedom and right.

Yours truly,

COLUMBIA.

KOOTENAI.—The Victoria and British Columbia papers, under the apprehension that the prosperity of the people really at work in the Kootenai District would seriously diminish their mining population, have from time to time decried the "mines on the American side." A recent writer in the British Columbian concludes with the following:

If the people of British Columbia wish to compete with their more enterprising neighbors of Oregon and Washington they must be up and doing, push the Hope wagon road through and improve the road down the Similkameen and Kettle rivers to Fort Colville or Sheppard, and thence to Kootenai. If something is not done and that quickly, British Columbia may bid farewell to the trade of the Kootenai country.

R. M. Walker, Special Mail Agent for Idaho Territory, has just paid a visit along the line of the Boise mail route. He has gone below to make his report, in which he will recommend the establishment of Post offices at all needed points along the line, and in the mines.—B. B. Statesman.

Mr. Walker was the editor of the only Copperhead campaign paper published in Washington Territory pending the election of Geo. E. Cole.

THE VICTORIA GOLD EXCITEMENT.—The excitement incident to the discovery of rich gold deposits near Victoria fully equals that of 1858, when Fraser river first "broke out" in San Francisco. We are told that owing to the rush of everybody from town, it cost a dollar an hour to the hand to discharge the freight of the steamer Oregon. Exciting accounts are almost hourly received from the diggings.

WILLAMETTE BAPTIST ASSOCIATION.—We are in receipt of a neat pamphlet containing the Minutes of the Seventh Anniversary of the Willamette Baptist Association held with the Church at West Union, June 23d—27th 1864. From it we find that there are 61 Baptist Communicants in Oregon.

IMMIGRANTS.—Mr. A. M. Osborn and family with several others, from Pennsylvania, passed through town yesterday on their way to Lane county. They crossed the Missouri river about the first of May. They bring with them several specimens of blooded stock.—Statesman of Tuesday.

On July 24th, a heavy body of water fell from the clouds in the mountains a couple of miles above Dayton, N. T., and a short distance south of the Coyote river, that a dwelling house was swept away down a canyon and a lime kiln lost or [illegible].—Appeal.

ORPHAN ASYLUM.—The ladies of Salem are taking the preliminary steps for the founding of an Orphan Asylum at that place. This is a glorious step and we hope will be followed by the ladies of every locality in the State and country.

GOLD DISCOVERIES.—We are informed by Indian Agent, Geo. A. Paige, that gold has been discovered at Chehalis Point, in this Territory. Parties are now working it, he informs us, and with a limited amount of machinery they pay well.—Tacoma [illegible]

THE NEW TERRITORY OF LARAMIE.—It will be perceived from the following enactment of the 38th Congress that the western part of Nebraska comprising [illegible] square miles and part of [illegible] a region equal area to [illegible] of old Dakota, more recently known as a part of Idaho, has been set off and temporarily annexed to Dakota. We learn from private sources that the ultimate object is to form a new Territory to be called Laramie. The 18th and 19th section of the law providing for the temporary government of Montana is as follows:

SEC 18. And be it further enacted, That until Congress shall otherwise direct, all that part of the Territory of Idaho included within the following boundaries, to wit: Commencing at a point formed by the intersection of the 33d degree of longitude west from Washington with the 41st degree of north latitude, thence along said 33d degree of longitude to the crest of the Rocky mountains, thence northward along the said crest of the Rocky mountains to its intersection with the 44th degree and 30 minutes of north latitude, thence eastward along said 44th degree 30 minutes north latitude to the 34th degree of longitude west from Washington, thence northward along said 34th degree of longitude to its intersection with the 45th degree north latitude, thence eastward along said 45th degree of north latitude to its intersection with the 27th degree of longitude west from Washington, thence south along said 27th degree of longitude west from Washington to the 41st degree north latitude, thence west along said 41st degree of latitude to the place of beginning, shall be, and is hereby incorporated into and made part of the Territory of Dakota.

Approved May 26th, 1864.

NOT QUITE.—From [illegible] of yesterday we were made to give an incorrect statement as to the extent of the public domain. The error arose from carelessly glancing at a summing up in an Eastern exchange, which we used without stopping to figure. We do not claim quite so much, but will take a little less than 2,000,000,000 acres. The article from which we obtained the computation doubtless contemplated the exact measurement of all the acres we have set up in [illegible] part of the country.

UNITED STATES ASSESSMENTS IN OREGON.—[illegible] Frazar, Esq., United States Assessor for the State of Oregon, has furnished us with the following in relation to the business of his office, now transacted, from which it is shown that the total assessed in this State from the 1st of September 1862 to the 1st of July, 1864, under the Excise Law, aggregate amounts to $216,430.12. The amount of assessments for the year 1864 is as follows:

From Licences, duties on Carriages, Billiard Tables, &c.
From Incomes for the year 1863

Total

There will be some scattering licences yet to return, which will make the [illegible] from $40,000 as the amount of licences for 1864. The same amount of business and amount of income returned [illegible] under the new law, as passed in June last, will increase the revenue of the State of Oregon [illegible] 3 per cent [illegible] there remains uncollected at this [illegible] $4,500 of which lays south of the mountains in district which have [illegible] by the Collector since the annual [illegible] made. RAILROAD IRON.—[illegible] this barging a cargo at Couch's [illegible] brought a large quantity of railroad iron [illegible] of the O. S. N. Company at the C[illegible] Dalles portage. The unthinking portion of community would forget that we had [illegible] Washington Territory and Oregon [illegible] event.

FROM THE PLAINS ACROSS.—[illegible] with their wagons and stock arrived [illegible] the steamer [illegible] yesterday evening from the States. They report [illegible] no difficulty on the way, and have had a pleasant trip, which spoken of [illegible] news performed by [illegible] them a few years.

PERSONAL.—Mr. A. G. Richardson, of [illegible], Superintendent of the California Stage, stopping at present a few days in our city, was formerly a resident of Portland, and has yet many strong attachments for it, at least there are numerous personal friends remaining here.

DISCIPLINE.—A boy received cruel [illegible] from a resident on Third street, [illegible] the result of an effort to procure fruit under circumstances not in accordance with the law which says "Thou shalt not steal." [illegible] chastisement is not at all time productive of habits in children.

STEAMBOAT REGULATION.—Conspicuous [illegible] have been placed in conspicuous places upon landings of the O. S. N. Company's boats, giving notice that no person will be permitted to board any boat, on its arrival at the wharf, until passengers get on shore, except by permission of officer at the gang plank.

RECORDER'S COURT.—In Recorder's Court yesterday six defendents, out of seven arraigned, were discharged, there not being evidence sufficient to show that the parties deserved penalties. The one, Wm Watson, unhappily was sent up for a day, as a reward of merit for getting drunk and being disorderly.

SLIGHT SHOWER.—This section of the country was favored by a slight shower of rain early yesterday morning, which had a tendency to lay the dust, cool the atmosphere, revive vegetation and, a friend suggests, start green wheat on the fire shocks.

THE LAST CHANCE.—Delinquent tax payers remember that this day is the last allowed them to meet their obligations to the county and save expense. Sheriff Stitzel has the roll, and his instructions are imperative.

LATE VICTORIA PAPERS.—We are indebted to [illegible] Fallen of Victoria, for papers to date of Saturday last, he having made the trip through in three and a half days, arriving in this city on Tuesday evening.

UNITED STATES ASSESSMENTS IN OREGON.—Thos Frazar, Esq., United States Assessor for the State of Oregon, has furnished us with the following facts in relation to the business of his office, now transpiring from which it is shown that the total assessments in this State from the 1st of September 1862 to the 1st of July, 1864, under the Excise Laws of Congress amounts to $21[illegible] 440 12. The annual assessment is for the year 1864 is as follows:

From Licenses, duties on Carriages, Billiard Tables &c	$30 649 21
From Incomes for the year 1863	30 [illegible]
Total	$61 540 9

There will be some scattering licences and incomes yet to return, which will make the amount not far from $70,000 as the annual assessment for the year 1864. The ratio amount of business and the same amount of income returned for the year 1863 as assessed under the new law as passed the 30th day of June last will increase the revenue, from the State of Oregon not far from [illegible]0 per cent. Of the $216 440 12 there remains uncollected at this time $19,500; $14,000 of which lays south of the Calliponia mountains in districts which have not been visited by the Collector since the annual assessment was made. Mr H B Parker, Deputy Collector starts [illegible] day for the purpose of collecting those districts and no doubt by the 1st of October there will not be over $1 000 remaining uncollected of the above $216 4[illegible]. Much of this amount remaining due will be from parties who have left the country before they were reached by the Collector. With the exception [illegible] about $2[illegible] all the collections have been made without any compulsion by law. This speaks well for the loyalty of the people of Oregon. Multnomah county pays of the annual assessment for 1864 $[illegible]1 31 00, being within $1 111 [illegible], of one half of the whole revenue in the State. The entire amount [illegible] of this county has been collected with the exception of $216.

RICHARD HIMSELF AGAIN.—An individual up [illegible] before the Recorder in this city a short time [illegible], charged with stealing Bacon from the warehouse of Messrs Richards & McCraken and having nothing wherewith to pay the fine imposed upon him [illegible] suffered to depart after begging for mercy [illegible] of the Court and promising to leave [illegible]. He is known as Richard the Third, but [illegible] is the veritable Dick is a question. His [illegible] would no doubt [illegible] much more [illegible] were he to dress himself in [illegible] with his address. But [illegible] his illustrious [illegible] he has awoke from his dreaming—and is himself again, and may be seen on our [illegible] almost any day spoiling for an opportunity [illegible] his tragic powers.

[illegible] USE.—We have felt like complaining often that a snag in Willamette river, opposite [illegible] wharf, should be permitted to hang there [illegible] less barrier to navigation, with a pr[illegible] would some day cost [illegible] money for its removal, but we are [illegible] of some use, and as an instance [illegible] on Tuesday last during the heavy gale [illegible] on a passing flat, be it managed to [illegible] thus prevented a wreck, as would [illegible] been certain had the boat drift[illegible] piles. "Render unto Cæsar the things [illegible]." But how many flatboats will it [illegible] above the bar?

[illegible]ATION OF AN EXTENSIVE WORK.—The [illegible] on Monday last commenced the [illegible] our wharf in this city, which [illegible] more importance than anything [illegible] on the river front, as the plan [illegible] will be quite different and when [illegible] that one. The new [illegible] the foundation and all the spiles [illegible] are of no consequence [illegible] by the application of a haw or rope and [illegible] adrift.

—The bark Sa[illegible] Merritt, Joseph W[illegible], [illegible] arrived on Tuesday night from [illegible]co. The first seven days out had strong winds, since had southerly winds [illegible] was to Baker's Bay. Discharged 50 tons [illegible] freight, at Cape Disappointment. [illegible] weighing 8000 lbs at Point [illegible]. The following are consignees:

[illegible] Walter Bros [illegible] W B Mills & C [illegible] W Wethert [illegible] Block [illegible] total [illegible]

REV. DR PATTERSON.—A telegram has been received by Rev P S Caffrey, of this city, dated San Francisco August 9th, [illegible] stating that Rev Dr [illegible]son of the Christian Commission, left on the [illegible] day and would be here next Sabbath [illegible] will fill the desk of Rev Mr Caffrey at the Presbyterian Church, on Sunday morning at the [illegible] hour.

RAIL ROAD IRON.—The bark Sea M[illegible] now discharging a cargo at Couch's wharf in this city, brought a large quantity of rail road iron for the use of the O S N Company at the Cascades and Dalles portages. The unthinking portion of our community would forget that we had rail roads in Washington Territory and Oregon, except for such events.

FROM THE PLAINS ACROSS.—Three families with their wagons and stock arrived in our city by the steamer Wilson G Hunt last evening direct from the States. They report having met with no difficulty on the way, and have had a quick and pleasant trip when spoken comparative to the journeys performed by some of our citizens who preceded them a few years.

PERSONAL.—Mr A G Richardson, of Sacramento, Superintendent of the California Stage Line, is stopping at present a few days in our city. Mr R. was formerly a resident of Portland, and we believe has yet many strong attachments for the place, at least there are numerous personal friends of his remaining here.

DISCIPLINE.—A boy received cruel punishment from a resident on Third street night before last as the result of an effort to procure fruit under circumstances not in accordance with the commandment which says "Thou shalt not steal." Immoderate chastisement is not at all times productive of correct habits in children.

STEAMBOAT REGULATION.—Conspicuous posters have been placed in conspicuous places about the landings of the O S N Company's boats giving notice that no person will be permitted to go on board any boat on its arrival at the wharf, until the passengers get on shore except by permission of the officer at the gang plank.

RECORDER'S COURT.—In Recorder's Court yesterday six defendents, out of seven arraigned were discharged, there not being evidence sufficient to show that the parties deserved penalties. The odd one, Wm Watson, unhappily was sent up for one day, as a reward of merit for getting drunk and being disorderly.

SLIGHT SHOWER.—This section of the country was favored by a slight shower of rain early yesterday morning, which had a tendency to lay the dust, cool the atmosphere, revive vegetation, and a friend suggests, start green wheat on the farmer's shocks.

THE LAST CHANCE.—Delinquent tax payers will remember that this day is the last allowed them to meet their obligations to the county and save special expense. Sheriff Stitzel has the o[illegible] and his instructions are imperative.

LATE VICTORIA PAPERS.—We are indebted to Mr Fallen of Victoria for papers to date of Saturday last, he having made the trip through in three and a half days, arriving in this city on Tuesday evening.

LINE DOWN.—This was the intelligence we received from the telegraph office last evening. The line being down near Yreka we are without later dates from the East.

GROVER & BAKER'S SEWING MACHINE.—We have frequently and strongly recommended these useful articles to our subscribers; we have done so [illegible] knowledge, that we have tested them both in our business and elsewhere. Dysentery.—For Dysentery and similar complaints of the Summer season, the PERUVIAN SYRUP has proved a remarkable preventive and cure. By imparting tone to the intestinal mucous membrane it places this surface in the best possible condition to resist the irritation of crude and indigestible articles of food.

Oregonians should test the merits of Dr HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS. While it is highly palatable as a beverage it is unequaled as an invigorator. In the pursuit of fortune at the mines many persons are exposed to the attacks of complaints of the digestive organs and of various kinds of fever. It is the very article that has so long been in demand at the mines. Its daily use will restore the tone of a deranged stomach, impart fresh vitality to the digestive functions and cheer the spirits. Hostetter's Bitters is the safest of all stimulants. Let the miner who [illegible] expose himself to [illegible] fail to obtain a supply of the genuine Hostetter Bitters and he will find it a certain safeguard to health.—Sold by Druggists and dealers generally. jy3-law

Amalgamation.—Miscegenation.—There is no political plum so melting in the mouth of the copperhead, as amalgamation or miscegenation. He gloats with a horrid grin over the maudlin conception and stoutly accuses others of guilt while the blood spots are on his own garments. It is his stock in trade, his last investment in politics. Destitute of the noble principles which animated the Democratic party in the days of Benton and Jackson and wanting in the stirring impulses of patriotism the modern democrat of the copperhead species, attempts to relieve his wanton affection and to break the disgrace of his hypocritical concern for the purity of the Caucasian cuticle

The census of 1860 taken by the Marshals appointed by James Buchanan shows who are the amalgamators and miscegenators.

For the benefit of those copperheads who are so fearfully exercised upon this subject we have compiled the following table from the Democratic census mentioned above. We give the number of mulattoes free and slave in each of the Southern States

Kentucky	17,0 8
Louisiana	47 [illegible]
Maryland	24 113
Mississippi	37 [illegible]
Missouri	23 88
North Carolina	14 798
South Carolina	28 11
Tennessee	11 978
Texas	2 12
Virginia	93 164
Georgia	8 904
Florida	6 183
Arkansas	14 049
Alabama	36 328
Total	510 393

Whole number of colored persons in Southern States about 4,000,000 From 1850 to 1860 the increase of mulattoes over the per cent of former years was nearly 2½ per cent showing conclusively that the Democracy have been at work. At the increased ratio of per cent stated above it would only have taken some forty or fifty decades to have bleached out the whole mass. Already throughout the entire South every eighth colored person is a mulatto. The native Abolitionists whatever may be their other sins cannot be charged with the production of these mulattoes for they were not allowed to live in the South. Neither can you charge the Republicans with any agency in this bleaching process. Who then are responsible? The locality indicates the responsibility. Buchanan wept the South like wild fire and Democracy always triumphed there until Democracy went into rebellion against the Government. In the land of pure Democracy nearly thirty six per cent of the colored population are mulattoes and quadroons. No wonder that Northern sympathizers are terribly exercised over the purity of the Caucasian cuticle—Oregon Sentinel

Rebel Barbarity.—Instances of fiendish barbarity on the part of the rebels might be multiplied infinitely. Here is one of the latest, which we take from the army correspondence of the New York Herald. The incident occurred in front of Stedman's brigade near Coal Harbor

A private was brought in the second night who was wounded in eight places. He said that his first wound was in the leg and he was compelled to lie on the field when his comrades retired. Every time that he was seen to move or display the slightest sign of life the rebels with a fiendishness that has seldom been surpassed, opened upon him, and continued this target practice through the two days he was there, until they had succeeded in inflicting an additional wound

At the battle of Gettysburg as we are informed by one who witnessed the incident, a wounded rebel soldier fell near our lines. His moans and cries for water were piteous and excited the compassion of one of the members of a Massachusetts regiment who attempted to relieve him, but found that the task would be perilous in consequence of the vigilance of some Arkansas sharpshooters who had effected a lodgement within a ledge at no great distance. At length one of our men unable to restrain his sympathy threw down his gun, held up a canteen and called out to the Arkansas men,—"Now I'm going to give that poor fellow some water." He had nearly reached the wounded man when he was hit by a ball from a rebel rifle and compelled to relinquish his mission of kindness. The fiends knew that it was one of their own comrades who was suffering but no emotion of pity could restrain their fiendish malignity —Journal

The Kearsarge and Alabama Fight in the British Parliament.—In the British House of Commons on the 23d of June, Sir John Hay asked whether the attention of the Government had been called to the fight between the Kearsarge and Alabama. He inquired whether, in view of the experience of this action, the Government would continue to build ships which could neither fight nor [illegible]

Lord Paget said the attention of the Admiralty had been drawn to the fight in question but it had nothing to do with the question of the vessels to which the inquiry referred

On the following evening Lord Paget in reply to an inquiry said, that the Admiralty did not think it necessary to send an officer to Cherbourg to examine the mode adopted to strengthen the sides of the Kearsarge in order to resist shot, that information having been obtained when the vessel was in [illegible] land

Scott now in his 78th year is spending the summer at West Point. He rises early and breakfasts at an hour when most of the guests are still in their rooms. At about 9 he goes to the Military Academy, where he spends the day in the library occupied, it is understood, in arranging and preparing materials for his memoirs, which he has been engaged for several years. He is stopping as is his custom, at the magnificent caravansary

Native Flax.—The Nevada papers tell of an indigenous flax discovered in great abundance on the hills in Carson Valley. The stalks are upward of four feet in length, are of a very strong fibre, and grow in bunches of from forty to fifty on a single root. It is thought that a good business could be done in gathering it for the manufacture of bale rope and bass rope

IODINE WATER.

IODINE WATER IS THE MOST IMPORTANT DISCOVERY of modern chemistry and it is impossible to over-estimate its influence as a remedial agent. Iodine has been considered the most useful article in Materia Medica and many of the most scientific and practical chemists and physicians have investigated its effects upon the human system. It is to act upon the

HEART,

LIVER, KIDNEYS,

DIGESTIVE ORGANS AND GLANDULAR SYSTEM,

and to have great control over

SCROFULOUS AFFECTIONS.

Notwithstanding the zeal and ability which have been devoted to its investigation it remained almost useless until Dr Henry Anders a physician and chemist of New York after years of patient labor and experiment discovered a chemical process which enabled him to dissolve without a solvent. This considered impossible by the scientific world is attested by certificates of analysis from Dr J R Chilton of this city and Prof Booth U S Mint, Philadelphia. The importance of this discovery was so highly appreciated by the Faculty that it was published in the Medical Journals and its use recommended to practitioners (see "American Medical Monthly" July 6, 1860, page 76)

PURE IODINE IN PURE WATER.

This valuable medicine is now available to the public for the cure of Scrofula in all its manifold forms Consumption, Cancer Heart Liver and Kidney Diseases Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Nervous Affections, Dyspepsia, Bronchitis, etc

AS A TONIC

Its operation is evinced by strengthening the digestive organs and increased nutrition of the body is the result of the employment of Iodine. The patient recovers flesh, strength and color hitherto pale, relaxed and feeble he becomes full strong and florid

We commenced with but a teaspoonful of Bitters a day. Her appetite and strength rapidly increased and she is now well
